

Old course of the New River in Whitewebbs Park

Spring activity—explore the old course of the New River. Beggars Hollow, Aqueduct, Ancient Woodland, Golf Course, Archers Wood, Myddelton House, Forty Hill, Beggars Hollow

This is a good opportunity to see and follow the Old Course The parts overgrown in Summer are visible and there is open access to the golf course.

We are trying to locate as many of these iron markers as we can. If you have What Three Words on your phone you can record a very accurate location. Please send a photo and the location to whitewebbspark@gmail.com. The ground can be muddy, be careful.

This 400 year old piece of historic engineering is amazing—built with spades and pickaxes. All measurements done with string and sticks—see the other leaflet for more info.

Map showing old course of New River c 1890 note the 100 foot contour

